

Culture and Local Governance 5(1-2)

Special Double Issue on Cultural Mapping in Planning and Development Contexts

GUEST EDITORS:

Nancy Duxbury

Centre for Social Studies (CES), University of Coimbra, Portugal

M. Sharon Jeannotte

Centre on Governance, University of Ottawa, Canada

Contents

Positioning cultural mapping in local planning and development contexts: An introduction Nancy Duxbury	1
 Politics and power in cultural mapping
Cultural mapping and urban regeneration: Analyzing emergent narratives about Bilbao Cristina Ortega Nuere and Fernando Bayón	9
Diversity in the maps of a Lisbon neighbourhood: Community and ‘official’ discourses about the renewed Mouraria Leonor Bettencourt and Paula Castro	23
Theatre city: On design in the interplay of social and material space (Teatro Oficina, Bixiga, São Paulo) Jeroen Stevens	45
 Techniques and technologies
Mapping culture in the Waterloo Region: Exploring dispersed cultural communities and clustered cultural scenes in a medium-sized city region Danielle J. Deveau and Abby Goodrum	61
Neighbourhood cultural mapping: Lessons learned from a pilot project in Bayshore Ben Dick	83
Cultural planning in the eastern Pori suburbs: Applicability of the approach? Maunu Häyrynen	101

Arteria – a regional cultural mapping project in Portugal João Luís Veronnezzi Pacheco and Claudia Pato Carvalho	117
Participation and inclusion
Mapping the intangibilities of the Historic Centre of Porto: ParticipA(C)TION (and its challenges) in cultural mapping projects Patrícia Romeiro	137
Identifications, cultures, and ‘groupness’: Reflecting on culture from ethnographic research in Argentina Soledad Balerdi	151
Engaging citizens in cultural planning with a web map survey Pilvi Nummi and Tuija Tzoulas	161